

Providing industry-recognized career paths, customer service certificates and management professional designations to the mechanical service and collision repair segments of the automotive industry.

The Automotive Management Institute now offers the following FCA LLC online courses. These online courses are available 24/7 and are approximately 45 minutes each. They may be paused and restarted at your convenience to work around a business schedule.

-
- wiTech 2.0 Fundamentals This online course introduces the wiTECH 2.0 scan tool and covers basic scan tool navigation, vehicle topology, reading DTCs, component identification, menu bar and scan tool operation. $41.50
 - wiTech 2.0 Flashing an ECU This online course introduces the process used to identify ECUs that require a flash. Included are the procedures used to flash existing ECUs, new ECUs with wiTECH 2.0. and flash procedure for radio ECUs via a USB memory drive is also presented. $41.50
 - wiTech 2.0 Flight Recordings This online course introduces the use of wiTECH 2.0 and microPOD II for the purpose of flight recordings. It covers flight recording setup, template creation, manipulation and viewing flight recordings, use of the flight recorder trigger and trigger LED characteristics. $41.50

To begin training, go to www.amionline.org, click "myAMi login," if you have never set up a myAMi learning portal account - register and then search for course titles above.

Mopar is a registered trademark of FCA US LLC. Tech Authority, wiTech 2.0, and microPOD II are products of Mopar.

Save Money - Use your 20% ASA member discount
Questions: tslaton@amionline.org